APPLICATION PROCEDURE

In addition to this cover sheet, include the following items in your application packet:

Donald Harward Fellows Award (HDWD) / Senior Thesis Winter Session Scholars (DWD and HDwD)

- A copy of your Senior Thesis Proposal.
- A one-page statement indicating what you plan to accomplish during Winter Session. Please address specifically how this award will further your research during the Winter Session.
- A detailed budget describing how you will use this money.
- If you are an honors student, a copy of your Honors Degree application must be on file with the Honors Program by 11/2/09 (verification checked).
- A letter from your thesis director detailing how full-time work will benefit your thesis.
- A signed statement confirming that, if you receive this award, you will take no courses and hold no employment during the 2010 Winter Session.

If I am not awarded the Harward Fellowship, I would like to be considered for the Senior Thesis Winter Session Scholarship: Y / N (circle one)

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

All applicants must arrange for a confidential letter of recommendation from your thesis director explaining how full-time work on your project during the Winter Session would benefit your thesis. Faculty should specifically address the work their student has accomplished thus far, how funding will aid the student's research, and why their student should be funded (the awards are competitive). Recommendations may be submitted by email attachment (pdf format) to Meg Meiman (meiman@udel.edu) or in a sealed, signed envelope with your application packet.

Submit your application to the Undergraduate Research Office, 180 South College Ave.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 2, 2009
AWARDS ANNOUNCED: NOVEMBER 23, 2009
